Inspire Learning with Diverse Books

The AFT and First Book partnership is a resource to provide AFT members access to high-quality books at affordable prices that support many subject areas including the Common Core, the STEM fields, and social and emotional issues.

Through our partnership, we have provided more than 3 million new books to thousands of educators and staff serving kids in need, and we'd like to help you as well.

Open this booklet to find some of the new and diverse titles chosen from the thousands on the First Book Marketplace.

About First Book

The AFT and First Book are working together to help our members help their students succeed.

First Book is a national nonprofit that provides access to brand-new and diverse books and educational resources for kids in need. We work with teachers, paraprofessionals, administrators and school support staff like you to get books into the hands of kids, with the shared goal of increasing literacy and promoting a lifelong love of reading.

We can help! Whether your union is planning a book fair, creating classroom libraries, or getting books for summer literacy programs, First Book and the AFT can help with everything from planning to title curation. Contact kdonlevie@firstbook.org or lgetzing@aft.org for ideas and assistance. Call the First Book Help Team for general information at 866-732-3669 8am-6pm EST

Join our partnership. Together we can get books into the hands of the students who need them.

AFT & First Book:
Working with you to provide books & resources to help students succeed

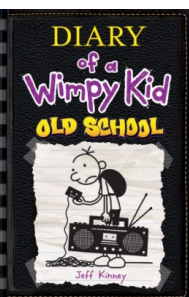

Thanks to the thousands of AFT members who have registered with First Book, we are changing the face of children's literature by encouraging publishers to print diverse books that reflect all students' families, cultures and experiences.

Kid-Tested Books that Ignite a Love of Reading
