

September 22, 2017

Legal Rights Training for Formula-Funded Staff and Local Union Officers

Come hear the latest legal updates for education unions and sharpen your representational skills. This day-long program features attorney-led presentations and workshops on contemporary legal issues that affect our members.

New this year: an introductory track for leaders and staff new to representational work.

Sacramento 10:00am-2:45pm

Register by September 14 at: CFT-legal-rights-training

October 10, 2017 and October 12, 2017

Formula-Funded Staff Meeting

These meetings provide a professional development opportunity for CFT Formula-Funded Staff to hear the latest updates, build knowledge and skills, plug their local unions into statewide campaigns and programs, and discuss critical matters facing the union.

October 10 – Burbank and October 12 – Berkeley

October 17-18 2017

Train-the-Trainer: CFT Worksite Leaders Training Program

This will be our fifth session of this exciting two-day course that prepares union leaders and staff to deliver the CFT Worksite Leaders Training program within their local union. The four-part CFT Worksite Leaders Training is geared for new union site reps and stewards. It covers a range of topics including legal rights, grievance handling, role of worksite leaders, member outreach, and tools to address worksite issues and contract violations.

Sacramento – note new location

November 15-16, 2017

Train-the-Trainer: Political Organizing for 2018

2018 will be a critical year for public education, unions, and workers rights with many local board seats open; the Governor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and other significant state races in November; and key congressional seats in play. So, we are getting an early start! This training will prepare local union officers, political directors, COPE chairs, formula-funded staff, and other staff to deliver CFT political action workshops at their union meetings.

Costa Mesa

December 5 and December 7, 2017

Train-the-Trainer: Secrets of A Successful Organizer

Learn about the concepts in the recent book from Labor Notes, Secrets of a Successful Organizer, and how to use the book's exercises, real-life examples, and handouts with members and union leadership teams. This training will prepare participants to build strong local unions with members involved in solving worksite issues.

December 5 – Berkeley and December 7 – Burbank

Register now for the Train-the-Trainer Courses at cft.org/train-the-trainer